

Dr Moncef Benkhalifa.

Reproductive Biology & Genetics

University Hospital & School of Medicine. Picardie University Jules Verne. Amiens. France

Dr Moncef Benkhalifa is qualified in Reproductive Biology and Medical Cytogenetics from the School of Medicine of Clement Ferrand Auvergne University France, with the habilitation to direct research programs from the school of medicine of Amiens, Jules Verne University France. He is mainly involved in ART, genetics and molecular diagnostics practices. He is teacher-researcher at the school of medicine of Picardy University Jules Verne and directing the reproductive biology & genetics laboratory of the university hospital. Dr Benkhalifa is collaborating with different national and international teams and he is author and co-author of more than 140 national, international publications and books chapters with a main interest for R&D in Embryology and Genetics

